James B Partridge
brings an evening of joyful nostalgia
to Town Hall
with The Big Christmas
Assembly

The days are getting shorter, the nights are getting darker but there is still so much entertainment to be enjoyed. Welcome to the latest B:Music brochure covering November to January events, the B:Music stages at Town Hall and Symphony Hall are the places to be this Festive season!

Don't miss Grammy Award winning guitarist and composer Pat Metheny in an intimate concert like no other. If hilarious Jane Austen improv is more your taste, the all-star cast of Austentatious are taking over the Town Hall stage in period costume with live musical accompaniment.

The Birmingham Classical 2024/25 programme is in full swing with a collection of concerts bringing music to the city from all over the globe.

We have a selection of exciting family shows this Festive season including The Snowman & The Nutcracker performed by Toscana Strings and The Tiger Who Came to Tea. Fancy some film? Catch family favourites Disney's The Muppet Christmas Carol and The Snowman or re-live iconic films Love Actually and The Holiday accompanied by a live orchestra in one of the finest concert halls in the world.

In January Dan & Phil return to Symphony Hall with their screamingly hilarious live stage show. If that's not enough of a nostalgic kick, check out some of our tribute shows such as Thank You For The Music and Man In The Mirror.

We hope you'll join us for what promises to be an exciting few months ahead!

Visit bmusic.co.uk to find more information on what is coming to Birmingham's Town Hall and Symphony Hall over for the next few months and beyond.

Aled Jones and Russell Watson reunited at Symphony Hall with new recordings of universally beloved Christmas songs from their brand-new album.

B:Eats at Symphony Hall

Home of the Brummie Bacon Cake

Following the popularity of our house favourite, and after featuring on the 'Hairy Bikers Christmas Special', our Head Chef, Lee, has developed even more Brummie Bacon (and non-bacon cake) recipes. Available from October 2024!

The Original Brummie Bacon Cake

Our original Brummie Bacon Cake is a unique flavour sensation – containing traditional ingredients including cheese and bacon. How to eat it? ...we recommend served warm, with lashings of butter and a warm cuppa!

Brummie Butter Chicken Cake

Made using the original bacon cake recipe – but with chargrilled chicken thighs which have been marinated in a special blend of Indian herbs and spices.

Festive Bacon Cake

Our festive version is too good not to be eaten all year round! With all the base ingredients of our original, with cranberries and stuffing – it's a real favourite! We truly believe this Bacon Cake is not just for Christmas!

Sundried Tomato and Feta Cake (V)

The addition of sundried tomatoes and feta cheese make this a delicious alternative to our Brummie Cake range.

'Fake-Un' Cake (VE)

Not to leave our vegan friends out of this taste sensation – this version is vegan friendly made with vegan cheese and plant-based bacon!

Pat Metheny: Dream Box/MoonDial Tour

Thu 14 Nov | Symphony Hall | 7:30PM

"This tour is very exciting for me," says Grammy-award winning guitarist and composer Pat Metheny ahead of his performance at Birmingham's Symphony Hall. "I have never really done anything this extensive in terms of being on a bandstand just by myself. This tour is new territory for me, and I feel really lucky to get all these opportunities to continue the research. It is "solo" but the concert really does reflect a wide range of approaches and concepts of what that might mean."

"The idea is that on this tour I can look at all the different ways I have made solo records over the years," he adds. "There is quite a range of things, from the first strumming-type stuff on New Chautauqua to Zero Tolerance for Silence to the baritone stuff and all else, plus the obvious conventional guitar stuff that I might come up with."

"At this point I have done more than a hundred concerts around the world." The Dream Box/MoonDial Tour aims to be an intimate concert like no other. "It is an evening very unlike any presentation I have been able to offer before and is getting a special kind of reaction." Playing over a dozen guitars, Metheny offers songs from his past and recent recordings, all given further dimension by the rare storytelling Pat shares with his audience. "It is a very intimate and personal kind of thing, and people seem to really be enjoying it."

Rhod Gilbert & The Giant Grapefruit

Fri 15 & Sat 16 Nov | Symphony Hall | 8PM

Age guidance: 16+

In his last show 'The Book of John', Rhod Gilbert was dealing with some pretty pungent life citrus, and an idiot called John. Little did he know that things were about to turn even more sour... But Rhod's not bitter; he's bouncing back and feeling remarkably zesty.

The Dubliners Encore: Official Stage Show

Sat 16 Nov | Town Hall | 7:30PM

The Dubliners Encore is the official stage show celebrating the greatest folk band of all time. Produced by The Dubliners' John Sheahan; renowned fiddle player and legendary Irish icon, this new show packs 50 years of songs, stories, and craic, into one unforgettable night.

This hugely talented cast captures the magic of The Dubliners singing all their hits, including 'The Wild Rover', 'Seven Drunken Nights', 'The Black Velvet Band', 'Whiskey in the Jar' and 'The Irish Rover'. Be a part of the ultimate Irish sing-along.

Capercaillie

Sun 17 Nov | Town Hall | 7:30PM

From their homeland roots of Argyll in the highlands of Scotland, Capercaillie have been credited with being the major force in bringing traditional Celtic music to the world stage and inspiring the great resurgence so evident today. Even four ground-breaking decades after Capercaillie first performed as teenagers in our native Scottish Highlands; even as they continue the worldwide musical journey that's taken them from the Brazilian rainforest to the Hanging Gardens of Babylon – it is the ancient Gaelic culture that still inspires them most.

Mica Millar

Sun 17 Nov | Jennifer Blackwell Performance Space | 8PM

Amassing over eleven million streams on Spotify alone, Mica and her highly revered debut album, "Heaven Knows", have been championed by the likes of Trevor Nelson, Jamie Cullum and Craig Charles at BBC Radio 2 and 6 Music as well as receiving five star reviews and acclaim everywhere.

Randall Munroe: What If?

Austentatious: An Improvised Jane Austen Novel

Sun 24 Nov | Town Hall | 2PM & 7PM

Age guidance: 14+

For one delightful matinee and evening only, the all-star Austentatious cast will improvise a hilarious new Jane Austen novel, performed in period costume with live musical accompaniment.

In August this year, 57 participants aged between 11 and 19 worked across Symphony Hall with the support of over 20 tutors as part of our week-long B:Music Summer School led by world-renowned saxophonist, flautist and this year's Creative Director, Xhosa Cole.

Xhosa Cole said, "The B:Music Summer School is one of the organisation's flagship talent development programmes which gives many young musicians their first foray into the world of jazz, and also into Birmingham's iconic Symphony Hall." Xhosa himself was a participant in the first Summer School when he was 15 years old, later becoming a chaperone and then a support tutor. "It's wonderful to be coming back this year as the Creative Director. I have a long history with B:Music; it's a big part of me musically. It feels great to now be able to reciprocate that and keep the ball rolling into the future."

"Thank you for the opportunity to play and be connected to other jazz musicians. Where I'm from, I've never met a single jazz musician, which for me was difficult because I wanted to get into the playing of it earlier, but I had nobody to go to. Now I've been to this summer school I realised how big jazz was and it blew my mind. It assured me that this was what I wanted to do in the future." – Participant

"My daughter was lucky enough to be one of the participants and I can safely say it's been one of the most incredible musical experiences of her life. She's learnt so much, not just musical skills but also confidence, independence, resilience and self-belief. She's met so many inspirational people, it really was a special week!" – Parent

The theme of the week this year was legendary Jazz icon Thelonious Monk. Xhosa was joined by a group of 20 talented tutors including Shiv Singh who also attended the first ever Summer School in 2012 and 6 Aspiring Music Leaders, another B:Music project that supports musicians interested in teaching or community work.

This year's Summer School was very kindly supported by the Dumbreck Charity, the Lillie Johnson Charitable Trust, the Saintbury Trust, the Michael Marsh Charitable Trust, the Thompson Family Charitable Trust and a number of individual donors, all helping us to inspire the next generation of the city's musical talent.
